

Hospitality and Tourism

- Hotel, Motel & Resort Desk Clerks
- Food Service Managers
- Animal Trainers
- Gaming Dealers
- Cooks
- Waiters & Waitresses
- Tour Guides
- Event Planners

Do you like to...

- Visit different states and countries
- Learn about other cultures
- Plan a party/event
- Learn other languages
- Cook or serve snacks/meals
- Cook, bake, and/or make menus
- Work at a concession stand
- Show people places or things to do
- Visit museums and work with artifacts/antiques
- Train animals for a show or competition

Good Skills & traits you need to have to work in careers in Hospitality & Tourism...

- Committed to customer satisfaction
- Cultural Awareness
- Organizational skills/ability to multitask
- Language skills
- Heart for serving
- Flexible
- Interpersonal skills
- Problem-solving
- Networking skills
- Technology skills
- Teamwork

#1...
POSITIVE
ATTITUDE!!

Gain some experience by...

- Learn a new language
- Teach your pet/animals tricks
- Help plan a vacation
- Serve in a shelter
- Write a blog/paper about all the places you travel
- Plan menus/cook meals
- Work in a restaurant
- Volunteer at a camp
- Help coach a team
- Help plan/run events
- Work front office/phones

High School Courses to take...

Foreign languages, Geography, History, Health, Child Care studies, Sociology, Psychology, Nutrition & Wellness, Intro to Culinary Arts & Hospitality, I, II

The Hospitality and Tourism Career Pathways

There are 4 Career Pathways in this cluster:

- Restaurants & Food/Beverage Services – Kitchen Manager, Chef, Cook, Server, Host
- Lodging – Sales Director, Hotel Manager, Concierge, Executive Housekeeper, Valet
- Travel & Tourism – Marketing Director, Tour Operator, Travel Agent, Event Manager
- Recreation, Amusements & Attractions – Casino Dealer, Museum Director, Ranger

Training Required...

Hospitality jobs typically require at least a high school diploma and extensive on-the-job experience. Larger restaurants and hotels may require their managers to have a bachelor's degree in business management, and some restaurants may prefer that their managers have postsecondary training in the culinary field.

Hospitality and Tourism

